STOCES DULL AND HEAVY. The stock market was dull and/or the general list heavy and lower. The principal movement was in Erie, which opened at 37 and advanced to 27% in sympathy with a rather firmer tone in the list generally early in the forenoon, when a rally in Pacific Mail to 62 imparted temporary strength; but the first report of a disturbance at the Erie figad-quarters occasioned a rather rapid decline to 35%. From this point there was a gradual rise to 37% again on a knowledge of the real character of "the disturbance" at the Grand Opera House, and some of the more sanguine helders of the stock looked to and failed to stay even there, for it receded to 36% again when all the good hews, was fully known. This indifference is explained by the apprehension, so far as to day is concerned, of itingation between the deposed President and the new board, whose proceedings he will probably endeavor to have declared illegal, and by a general mistrust that the Ring have not only robbed the road of every penny of Ra revenue, but have used the credit of the corporation to horrow impenses sums of credit of the corporation to borrow immense sums of money, giving chilications in return which will impose a meeting of feating debt over and above the bends and stock. These fears may be extravagant, but they are enough to take the bloom extravagant, but they are enough to take the bloom off the speculation for a rise in Eric, nowever well intentioned the new board and however flattering the prospect of the "new departure" of the company. The fluctuations in the rest of the list were comprised within an average of one-sail per cent, the attention of the market being absorbed with exciting events in Tweaty-third street. In the case of Panama there was a further rise to 97, and in Hammbal and St. Joseph an advance to 42. St. Paul preferred was exceptionally strong, with sales precedent for a Grand Jury in Jersey—the Grand Jury of Hudson county, in session at Jersey City, were discharged yesterday. It would not be correct to state that their labors were concluded, for a thorough investigation into the affairs of the several of the Grand Jury has been especially called to the giving out of work by the day by the Board of Public Works, when the charter required that it be given out by contract. It is a REFREHENSIBLE AND DANGEROUS PRACTICE to allow parties to take work by the day and employ a large number of hands, to keep their own time and charge as many days! work as they please to the city. This is especially the case in the construction of sewer connections at the Ravine road and the reconstruction of the van Vorst and Henderson street sewers, where a great amount of work of this character has been performed. The excuses ofered in these cases cannot be sufficient to compensate for the bad precedent established by such a violation of the organic law. The charter is in itself entirely too liberal in the powers granted, and when the Board of Public Works exhausts those powers and passes beyond them at its own discretion the public safety demands of this Grand Jury a presentment of the fact to your honorable Couri, to the end that the people may become aware or This impending Banger and apply the remedy in time. In the opinion of this Grand Jury much of the evil complained of would disappear if the local government were restored to the people themselves. From the evidence adduced before us we would further state that the different boards of Jersey City, in their employment of persons at large and exorbitant salaries, and educing from them for political purposes extraordinary percentages, thereby making the beople, through taxation, bay for political purposes extraordinary percentages, thereby making the neople of the same by making it an indictable offence, more especially has this been the case in the Board of Public Works, where considerable amounts have been thus collected from the employes.

Testimony has been furnished to us by the most prominent surveyors regarding the practice of public officers taking from the treasury of the people assistance. From the town of GREENVILLE we have listened patiently to the recital of complaints by prominent citizens against their Street Commissioners, who are clothed with powers greater than the Board of Public Works of Jersey City, and the citizens have no redress except through the Legislature. In the Lowenburg of the Company of greater than the Board of Public Worss of Jersey City, and the citizens have no redress except through the Legislature. In the township of West ROBOKEN the Township committee have, without authority of law, issued improvement certificates, extended the time for the performance of contracts on streets, and releved the contractors from the penalties incurred, contrary to the express wording of the contracts. The work and material accepted by them have not been in accordance with the true intentant meaning of the specifications and contracts, and the township moneys have been needlessly and recklessly spent by them for purposes for which they had no authority under the law.

The Grand Jury would not discharge its whole duty if it failed to call special attention to the increase of vile and obscience and indictment of particular persons has not been furnished, but it is hoped that the next Grand Jury will be able to find such indictment if the traffic in such books and papers in our midst does not cease. Young, impressible and inexperienced persons are led astray, their minds corrupted and they are frequently urged on to ruin for life.

The Grand Jury would also call the attention of the Court to what they cannot fail to consider the Grand Jury would also call the attention of the Court to what they cannot fail to consider the Grand Jury would also call the attention of the restand, and who displayed an uiter disregard of truth; and there have been some cases when citizens heretofore reputed to be of good standing have not hesitated to commit with and deliberate perjury, as was afterward proven to the entire satisfaction of this body. We most sincerely regret that we cannot, from the nature of our position, present indictments against these parties for public irial.

The Grand Jury would call attenuon to the practice in the more of that Boyri participating in the con-cannot, from the nature of our position, present indictiments against these parties for public trial.

The Grand Jury would call attention to the practice in the

of members of that Board under assumed names and presenting the same to said Board ior payment, and having the same sworn to by persons not supplying the same and not in any way connected with said contract. We would respectfully suggest that some action be taken by that Board to check these reprehensible practices.

The Grand Jury cannot adjourn without calling attention to the loose manner in which the papers of this county attack the characters of citizens, without any effort on their part to investigate the truth of such charges, thereby turning the liberty of the press into the most wanton license. The attention of the Court is called to the condition of the Police Department of JEESRY CITY and its mode of deing business. The Court will observe that a large number of indictiments have been presented by tins body against the department for offences against the public peace and infractions of the law; and these are not confined to the rank and file of the force, but they permeate the entire organization, from the Police Commission attelf to the Chief of Police, officers and subordinates, down to the patrolmen. So that the entire department appears to be in a Chaofic State of insubordinates, down to the patrolmen. So that the entire department appears to be deplored because it leaves but poor security for the lives and property of the citizens from a department that should be above suspicion to make it available as an arm of protection to the community.

A correct Local Fress.

it available as an arm of protection to the community.

A CORRUPT LOCAL PRESS.

We would respectfully call the attention of the Court to the persistent attacks made by some of the Journals of Jersey City upon this Grand inquest, with the manifest purpose of oringing our deliberations into contempt and frustrate our sworn duty of bringing to Justice all violators of the law. In several instances these journals derided and treated with contempt the indictments found by this Grand inquest, and in furtherance of this purpose proclaimed the innocence of the accused without hearing the testimony, and attributed unworthy motives to those who, in finding such indictments, only fulfilled their obligations to the State, at great personal inconvenience and sacrifice. And we would add that ample testimony has been adduced before us to prove that the aforesaid Journals have been substituted at the expense of the taxpayers of Jerser City by those whom we have been obliged in the discharge of our duty to indict and present before this Court for divers offences.

The Grand Jury has been sitting an unusual length of time, and has instence patiently to every compliant brought before it, whether of private or public wrong, and has found more indictments under your instructions than, pernaps, any other Grand Jury that has ever met in this State. It has seen done at great personal sacrifice, but, the members thereof feit the grave respons of the personal sacrifice, but which casted upon them, and they have do as all in their lower to reform abuses, place or l', e on the road to bunishment and assist in promoting the revived moral sense of the community in relation to public wheels.

March. 1872. THOMAS ALDRIDGE, Foreman.

As soon as District 'Attorney Garretson had concluded the reading of the document the foreman, Mr. Aldridge, add/cessing the Court, stated that he was instructed by the Grand Jury to ask that the Court have $100 presentment published.

Judge Be'dle—If the Grand Jury will retire to deliberate and then state the character of the publication, the Court will consider the application.

After a brief deliberation the Grand Jury returned into Court, and the following colloquy ensued:

The Foreman—If Your Honor please, the Grand Jury desire to have their presentment published in THE NEW YORK BERALD and a German paper of that city, as well as in the official papers of this county.

The Foreman—No, Your Honor.

Judge Bedle (after a pause)—The Court desire to say a few words to you, gentlemen, before you be discharged. You have been in session a long time. Your labors have been tedious and troublesome. The Court are satisfied that you had an honest purpose to investigate all violations of the law. They have no doubt that you have and with an eye to the public good. What may be the result of your investigation hereafter can only be told when the matter comes before the petit jury. It is something new in the history of our country to have a Grand Jury so long in session, extending even beyond the term of the Oyer and Terminer. The Court, in discharging you, most succeedy thank you for the attention you have given to the business of the term.
